Cancer care at the highest level, anywhere – right here in Texas.

NCI-designated Comprehensive Cancer Centers are among the most advanced in the world.

Fortunately, you don’t have to go far to find one. UT Southwestern is the only NCI Comprehensive Cancer Center in North Texas. More than 200 members from over 30 departments provide over a dozen major cancer care programs that advance the treatment and prevention of cancer.

UT Southwestern physicians and scientists conduct laboratory research, clinical research, and population-based research, leading to new drugs and treatments aimed at improving patient care, and ultimately saving lives. If you or a loved one is facing cancer, you want the most innovative treatments, leading-edge research, and the latest technology. You want cancer care at the highest level – UT Southwestern Harold C. Simmons Comprehensive Cancer Center.

In Dallas-Fort Worth, his professional directing credits include Vanessa and Sonia and Masha and Spike at Stage West, Hunting and Gathering for Amphibian Stage Productions, Company and Permanent Collection for Jubilee Theatre, Ellis Island: The Dream of America for the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra at Bass Performance Hall, and fourteen shows at Circle Theatre including My Name is Asher Lev and at Circle Theatre including The Desert Song in concert (1926 version; music & libretto restoration; direction & musical staging), Nine at Dallas City Performance Hall, The Sound of Music, The Music Man, Too Many Girls, Pleasures and Palaces (restoration), 1776, The Most Happy Fella (complete version restoration), Oklahoma!, Kiss Me in concert (restoration), Rags, Gypsy (restoration), Oliver!, My Fair Lady, Bye Bye Birdie (restoration), Show Boat in concert (1927 version; music & libretto restoration), Funny Girl (restoration), The King and I, West Side Story, Carousel, Susannah Todd in concert at Meyerson Symphony Center, and two concerts with the Irving Symphony Orchestra: programs of works by Rodgers & Hammerstein, and the music of Jule Styne and Harold Arlen – all featuring the original Broadway orchestrations.

JAY DIAS (Lyric Stage Music Director/Conductor) for Lyric Stage: South Pacific, Lady in the Dark, Annie Get Your Gun in concert, The Golden Apple (music & libretto restoration; complete recording on PS Classics), Fiddler on the Roof, Titanic (also scene work), Blue Roses, The Desert Song in concert (1926 version; music & libretto restoration; direction & musical staging), Nine at Dallas City Performance Hall, The Sound of Music, The Music Man, Too Many Girls, Pleasures and Palaces (restoration), Oklahoma!, Kiss Me in concert (restoration), Rags, Gypsy (restoration), Oliver!, My Fair Lady, Bye Bye Birdie (restoration), Show Boat in concert (1927 version; music & libretto restoration), Funny Girl (restoration), The King and I, West Side Story, Carousel, Susannah Todd in concert at Meyerson Symphony Center, and two concerts with the Irving Symphony Orchestra: programs of works by Rodgers & Hammerstein, and the music of Jule Styne and Harold Arlen – all featuring the original Broadway orchestrations.

JACK DEGELIA (Production Stage Manager) is thrilled to return to Lyric Stage after a 12-year absence. He was last seen on this stage as Samovar in A Day In Hollywood/A Night In The Ukraine for which he also reproduced the original choreography earning him a Leon Rabin Award nomination. His theatre credits as a performer include: NYC – They’re Playing Our Song (Vernon u/s), A Day In Hollywood… (Samovar u/s), and Children of a Lesser God (James Leeds u/s). He spent more than 4½ years in Fiddler On The Roof as Motel, the tailor, working with original director/choreographer Jerome Robbins. Other favorite roles include Zach in A Chorus Line, Cornelius in Hello, Dolly! with Pearl Bailey, Barnum in Barnum, Marvin in Falsettos, Hysterium in A Funny Thing Happened… and Edmond in A Long Day’s Journey Into Night with Gale Sondergaard. As a director/choreographer his work has garnered awards across the country reproducing original choreography and staging of Broadway’s masters, Bob Fosse, Gower Champion, Jerome Robbins, Michael Bennett and Tommy Tune. He served as a television producer for 12 years at NBC in Los Angeles where movies he produced received both Emmy and Golden Globe awards. He currently serves as the Dean of Instruction for the College of Humanities, Art, Media and Performance and the Facilitator of the Academy of Media Art & Technology for Carrollton-Farmers Branch R.L. Turner High School.

DON POWERS (Rehearsal Pianist) – Don is very pleased to be involved with Lyric Stage. A graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, he holds a Bachelor’s degree in theatre and a Master’s degree in music. After moving back home from Hawaii where he played keyboards for the Don Ho show, he acted as the resident music director at Theatre Arlington from 1982 until 2014. He enjoys retired life mainly because it gives him more time for music and theatre!

BILL EICKENLOFF (Sound Design) is the resident Sound Designer for Lyric Stage, as well as an adjunct professor at TCU’s Theatre Dept. in Fort Worth. He is also the resident sound designer for Theatre Arlington and works for Casa Manana, Wishing Star Productions, Prism Theatres and the Trinity Shakespeare Festival. He is a proud graduate of Texas A&M University. See his complete bio at www.linkedin.com.
